

UET Pre-Retirement Training Program

Purpose

The purpose of this exciting program is to provide eligible state bargaining unit employees with the opportunity to assess, develop, and refine their retirement plans. Retirement planning is an important element of contemporary work life. Developing and implementing an appropriate retirement plan may have positive impact on the quality of work life during active employment and beyond.

UET provides training and development opportunities to eligible state bargaining unit employees throughout the state of Ohio. UET continuously seeks to expand the training and education opportunities to meet the developmental needs of employees.

Objective/Benefits

This program will allow you, your spouse or significant other to develop a comprehensive retirement plan, develop the knowledge to plan for a secure retirement, and develop a personalized action plan with clear steps toward achieving their retirement goals that comprises of the following aspects of your life:

- Financial Planning
- Physical and mental health
- Social involvement
- Overall wellness

Program Topics

- PERS retirement and health care benefits
- Deferred compensation
- Union Benefits Trust
- Financial planning
- OCSEA retirees chapter
- Health and wellness

This training will be held at OCSEA Headquarters in the Union Hall.